Master Gardener Annual Update Conference

Photography Contest

Calling all Master Gardener Photographers!

We invite you to take part in our Photography Contest at the 2022 Master Gardener Annual Update Conference! This year's conference will take place in Brookings, SD September 23-24, 2022.

Eligibility

- Must be an active/registered SDSU Extension Master Gardener or Intern at time of submission

How it works

- Each participant is allowed one photography entry per category.
- Bring all entries to the photo check-in by registration desk at the conference.
- Entries should be ready to display with title and category, no name. A number will be assigned by the committee for an anonymous vote.
- Photos should be displayed on 14" x 18" mat board or smaller.
- All work must be original to the person submitting
- Work previously entered into this contest may not be submitted again

Categories for Photography

1. Wildflower Pollinators
2. Edible Landscapes
3. Landscapes

Categories will be judged Saturday, September 24th

Ribbons for 1st, 2nd, 3rd place will be awarded in each of the 3 categories. Master Gardener People's Choice awarded overall. People's Choice Winner receives $25 cash award.

THANK YOU for participating!
