State 4-H Ambassador Program Position Description

Being a State 4-H Ambassador is a challenging and rewarding role with the South Dakota 4-H Youth Development Program. Young people selected to serve as a State 4-H Ambassador can expect the following:

Objectives:

- Prepare individuals for roles as leaders, mentors and problem solvers
- Enhance skills in communication, public speaking and critical thinking
- Focus on foundational life skills
- Develop skills to prepare them for future career opportunities
- Provide positive youth-adult partnerships

Roles of a State 4-H Ambassador:

- Serve to support the 4-H program through public relations
- Function as a positive role model for youth in South Dakota
- Continually strive for improvement by serving as an agent of change
- Promote inclusion and respect for diversity across 4-H
- Utilize skills and knowledge gained through 4-H to engage youth in educational activities
- Pro-actively engage in youth-adult partnerships

Applicant Qualifications:

- Must be a registered 4-H member in good standing
- 4-H age 14-18 based off of the 4-H year
- Must submit all application material and information requested
- Participate in interview to be held at the State Fair (in-person or virtually)
- State 4-H Ambassador applicants must apply each year

State 4-H Ambassador Program Requirements:

Once selected, State 4-H Ambassadors are expected to participate fully in the below requirements.

- Abide by South Dakota 4-H Code of Conduct both during and outside of 4-H events
- Be prompt in communication with program staff
- Individuals agree to assume financial responsibilities associated with these planning meetings. Fundraising resources will be provided in order to help members offset the cost incurred
- Be responsible for providing or arranging personal transportation to all activities and events unless otherwise indicated by State 4-H Ambassador program staff
- State 4-H Ambassador and a parent/guardian must attend an orientation meeting to be held via an online platform

- State 4-H Ambassadors will adhere to the official dress code
- Create a State 4-H Ambassador Action Plan and work to accomplish goals identified in plan
