South Dakota Shooting Sports Role Descriptions

Introduction to Guideline H-G-25-01

This document standardizes the way we define roles in the South Dakota 4-H Shooting Sports program. There are four main role types: shooting sports coach, shooting sports leader in training, parent/caregiver, and certified 4-H Volunteer. The role descriptions and activities listed are for official 4-H events, practices, and activities.

Professionals and certified volunteers will ensure compliance with applicable 4-H policies and procedures based upon an individual's determined role.

Yours in positive youth development,

Jenae K. Hansen-Gross, LCSW, MPA
SDSU Extension 4-H Volunteer Development Field Specialist

Regina Bakley
SDSU Extension 4-H Regional Youth Educator
